

Chavayah & Talmidim Core –5777

Migration Past and Present: Judaism, Diaspora, and Borderlands

Schedule

Core Curriculum sessions are required for all students. At Core sessions, students are able to build connections with each other as they learn together and collaborate on community change. All classes will run from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. at Beth Emet or offsite (exact location TBA). When Core sessions are at Beth Emet, lunch will be provided from 12:00 to 12:30 p.m. When sessions are offsite (i.e. not at Beth Emet), teens may be asked to bring their lunches. Core sessions will be facilitated by Abigail Backer along with guest presenters from organizations around Chicago.

Sunday, October 23, 2016: Migration Intro and Personal Migration Stories

Sunday, November 20, 2016: Exile v.s. Diaspora

Sunday, December 11, 2016: Spanish and Eastern European Migration

Sunday, January 29, 2017: Extended Session from 12:30 – 5:0 p.m.

Sunday, February 12, 2017: Modern Challenges in U.S. Immigration

Sunday, March 5, 2017: Field trip to Pilsen

TEEN TRIP: [tentative dates] – Monday, March 27 through Saturday, April 1

Sunday, April 23, 2017: African American and Jewish Diaspora

Sunday, May 21, 2017: Conclusion and Celebration